

Cutty Sark

Der Schnellsegler "Cutty Sark" befuhr die Weltmeere im romantischsten Zeitalter der Ozeanreisen. Im Jahre 1869 lief das Schiff im Clyde-Fluß in Schottland vom Stapel und beförderte von da ab wertvolle Fracht. In einem berühmten Rennen von Australien nach England, im Jahre 1885, schlug die Cutty Sark die Thermopylae. Sie schaffte die Reise in 73, die Thermopylae in 80 Tagen. Noch heute vermittelt uns die Cutty Sark den Zauber ihrer Windjammer-Vergangenheit. Sie liegt in einem Trockendock am Greenwich-Pier in London als Erinnerung an ein Zeitalter, in dem stolze Segelschiffe die Meere beherrschten.

Cutty Sark

The clipper Cutty Sark represents one of the most romantic ages in the history of ocean travel. She was launched on the River Clyde, Scotland, in the year 1869, and spent most of her time transporting goods around the world. In 1885, she beat the Thermopylae in a famous race from Australia to England. The Cutty Sark made the trip in 73 days, the Thermopylae took 80 days. Today, the Cutty Sark retains the glamour of her wind-blown past. Resting in dry berth in Greenwich England, the Cutty Sark lives on as the last link to an age when the proud and beautiful clippers ruled the seas.
